RE: Stephanie Verden
MUR5813

Dear Ms. Brown:

As we discussed, I represented Stephanie Verden in an embezzlement case prosecuted in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia which grew out of her employment as a clerk working for the Medical Association of Georgia. Enclosed for your information is the executed Statement of Designation of Counsel form signed by Ms. Verden on June 4, 2007 in which she authorizes me to communicate with you on her behalf regarding your investigation of her.

The Probation Department found that Ms. Verden and her husband had total assets of $6,022 and total liabilities of $37,922, resulting in a net worth of -$31,900. A portion of the presentence report in Ms. Verden's case which addresses her financial situation is attached hereto. In addition to the foregoing, Ms. Verden is currently incarcerated in federal prison having been convicted of a felony.

Upon her release from prison, Ms. Verden will be his sole source of support. In addition to the foregoing, Ms. Verden owes $2,000 as a special assessment in her criminal case and restitution in the amount of $135,046.90.

On behalf of Ms. Verden, I respectfully submit that instead of trying to get blood from a stone, to wit, my indigent client, the Federal Election Commission might more profitably avail itself of the information she has of significant fraudulent activity in violation of the federal election laws on the part of her former employer.

Sincerely,

Seth D. Kirschenbaum
